WHY

ARE YOU HERE TODAY?

What would make today worthwhile for you?

 Wodurch wäre der heutige Tag für dich wertvoll?

 Qu'est-ce qui ferait de cette journée une journée qui compte pour toi?

ROUND 1

Why are you here today? What's your intention?

 Warum bist du heute hier?
Was ist deine Intention für heute?

 Pourquoi es-tu ici aujourd'hui ?
Quelle est ton intention?

ROUND 2

Think of a moment in your career where your voice mattered, and you either used it well or wished you had.

 Denke an einen Moment in deiner Karriere, in dem deine Stimme wichtig war - und daran, ob du sie gut genutzt hast oder ob du dir gewünscht hättest, sie besser nutzen zu können.

 Pense à un moment de ta carrière où ta voix a compté, et où tu l'as soit bien utilisée, soit regretté de ne pas l'avoir fait.

Two years ago, someone in this association asked: women make up over 50% of the population. How do we bring that talent into our industry? That question led to a small group of women meeting every month. It led to last year's Spring Talks. And it led to today.

[slow] And it led to today.

When Women Empowering HDDD was founded, some people asked: why focus on women? The answer is simple. We are not separate from this industry. We are this industry. We investigate the ground. We select the tools. We plan the drill paths. This event exists so that more of us get to say that out loud.

Last year, over 40 people came to the first DCA
Spring Talks.

Something shifted that day.

Women who had never presented at a DCA event stood up and shared their expertise.

That was the real shift. Not just being in the room.
But being heard in it.

But being heard in it.

It's not about pretending to be someone else.

It's about accessing parts of yourself, you've been holding back.

What would change if you dropped that story?
